SPONSORPURPOSE

To amend Chapter 38 of the City of Shreveport, Louisiana Code of Ordinances to include definitions for “blighted property” and “abandoned property” as provided by state law. This revised ordinance ensures full compliance with state law and ensures Property Standards can file liens to secure all fines, fees, costs, and penalties that are assessed by the city described in orders rendered in Environment Court proceedings. It also provides for accelerated quieting of title for adjudicated properties.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Section 38-4 of the City of Shreveport Code of Ordinances currently provides various definitions for Chapter 38 Housing and Property Standards. The Department of Property Standards requests an amendment to this ordinance. This ordinance amendment provides a definition of “blighted property” as provided in La. R.S. 33:1374(B)(1) and “abandoned property” as provided in La. R.S. 33:4720.59(D)(2).
